

MISTRA: ANALYSIS OF SOUTH AFRICA'S 2024 ELECTIONS AND THE COALITIONS AFTERMATH

Edited by Susan Booysen
MISTRA

MISTRA:
ANALYSIS OF
SOUTH AFRICA'S
2024 ELECTIONS
AND THE COALITIONS AFTERMATH

Edited by Susan Booysen
MISTRA

AUGUST 2024

CONTENTS

Bios	iii	The core coalition negotiations following Election 2024	32
Party names – abbreviations	v	Cabinet formation and retaining power	35
SECTION 1: A STRATEGIC OVERVIEW OF ELECTION 2024	1	From the national to provincial – three provincial coalitions	37
Introduction	2	Towards the future – early coalition tests and questions about coalition stability	38
Voter participation	2	Conclusion	41
Shifts in voter preferences	3	References	41
National-local election bellwethers and the impact of varied turnout	4	SECTION 3: ELECTION 2024 – COALITION POLITICS, PRESENT AND FUTURE IN SOUTH AFRICA’S PROVINCES	45
The national question and identity	6	Introduction	46
Historical background and ideological positioning	7	KWAZULU-NATAL: RECONFIGURATION OF PARTY POLITICS AND NEW COALITIONS	47
Imperative of coalition governance	8	Changing political ground – from disbelief to June 2024	48
In lieu of a conclusion – path to fortune or misteries?	11	Explanation of KZN party performances	49
References	12	Coalition dynamics	50
SECTION 2: TRENDS IN SOUTH AFRICA’S 2024 ELECTIONS AND POST- ELECTION COALITIONS – A CONFLICTED NEW POLITICAL WORLD ARISES	13	Impact of the 2024 general election on the 2026 local government elections	51
Introduction	14	Conclusion	51
2.1: ELECTION 2024 AND THE TRENDS IN ELECTION RESULTS	15	References	52
‘Anticipation of change’ – the political environment leading to Election 2024	15	GAUTENG: PIVOTAL PROVINCE THAT SLIPPED FROM THE GRASP OF THE AFRICAN NATIONAL CONGRESS	53
Electoral participation – party political and independent uptake	17	Voting patterns, demographics, and the Lesufi factor	53
Party support in South Africa’s Election 2024	21	Fate of electoral hegemony	55
2.2: COALITION FORMATION IN THE AFTERMATH OF SOUTH AFRICA’S ELECTION 2024	26	Cobbling together a minority coalition government	57
The ANC as leading minority party – asserting itself while grappling with positioning	27	Looking ahead – complex coalition dynamics	59
		References	59

NORTHERN CAPE: POLITICAL SHIFTS CATAPULT PROVINCE INTO COALITION ZONE	61	EASTERN CAPE: A VICTORY FOR THE PARTY, A LOSS FOR GOVERNANCE	87
Municipal dissatisfaction and electoral shifts	62	Political parties, provincial traction and campaign issues	87
Political fragmentation and electoral dynamics	63	Results and analysis	89
By-elections, identity politics and changing party fortunes	64	Conclusion	91
New coalition politics in the Northern Cape	65	References	91
References	66	NORTH WEST: CONTINUITY OF ANC MAJORITY AMID DECLINING VOTER COMMITMENT	93
FREE STATE: MAJORITY PARTY DECLINE ADVANCING TO THE POINT OF PRECIPICE POLITICS	68	Party performances across seven North West elections	94
Comparative provincial election results, 1999-2024	69	The changing electoral landscape since 1994	94
Issues that impacted the provincial outcome	69	Turnout trends across elections in North West	96
Post-election political constellations	71	Coalitions and their local-level impact	97
Conclusion	72	Conclusion	97
References	73	References	99
MPUMALANGA: A PROVINCE ON THE EDGE	75	WESTERN CAPE: MAINTAINING THE STATUS QUO WITH NO NEED FOR COALITION ARRANGEMENTS	100
Factional politics and the decline of the ANC in Mpumalanga	76	Registration and turnout	101
Rise of MK party in Mpumalanga	77	Electoral trends since 1994	101
Looking towards the next elections	78	The DA's ascent in the Western Cape	102
References	79	The ANC's decline in the Western Cape	104
LIMPOPO: NUANCED OPPOSITION CHANGES AMID GRADUAL ATTRITION OF PARTY DOMINANCE	81	Conclusion	104
Election results and trends over time	82	References	104
Challenges and issues affecting voter turnout trends	82	SECTION 4: CONCLUSION ELECTIONS 2024: THE AFTERMATH	106
Nuanced shifts and party preferences in the 2024 provincial elections	84	References	109
Conclusion	85	APPENDIX A: PARTY SUPPORT IN SOUTH AFRICA'S NATIONAL AND LOCAL ELECTIONS	110
References	85

BIOS

YACOOB ABBA OMAR

Dr Y Abba Omar, director of operations at MISTRA, is a former South African ambassador and senior manager at the Banking Association South Africa (BASA). Scenario planning is one of his specialisations.

CHERREL AFRICA

Prof. Cherrel Africa is associate professor in Political Studies, University of the Western Cape. She provides regular media commentary on South African elections and has served as an election analyst for various media outlets.

SUSAN BOOYSEN

Prof. Susan Booysen is emeritus professor at the University of the Witwatersrand, author of eight books, multiple journal articles and book chapters. She is a political analyst and research consultant, and MISTRA's lead researcher on coalitions.

KELVIN KNOWLES

Dr Kelvin Knowles is a political analyst and holds a PhD in Political Transformation and Governance. He founded Kelvin Knowles Consultancy, specialising in political risk assessment and training.

BONOLO MAKGALE

Bonolo Makgale is a democracy practitioner with over a decade of experience. She is the head of the Democracy and Civic Engagement Unit at the Centre for Human Rights, University of Pretoria.

MASHUPYE MASERUMULE

Prof. Mashupye Maserumule is the former chief editor of the Journal of Public Administration, professor and executive dean of the Faculty of Humanities at the Tshwane University of Technology. He has over 100 publications in scholarly, professional and political journals, books and book chapters.

SETHULEGO MATEBESI

Prof. Sethulego Matebesi is an author of three books on community protests and mining-community dynamics, associate professor and head of the Department of Sociology at the University of the Free State.

BHEKI MNGOMEZULU

Prof. Bheki Mngomezulu is director of the Centre for the Advancement of Non-Racialism and Democracy at the Nelson Mandela University, author of six books and over twenty book chapters on various themes, and a full professor of Politics and International Relations.

MCEBISI NDLETYANA

Prof. Mcebisi Ndletyana is a professor of Political Science at the University of Johannesburg and an author of numerous publications.

JOEL NETSHITENZHE

Joel Netshitenzhe is executive director of the Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection (MISTRA) and author of various publications on the South African political economy.

WANDILE M. NGCAWENI

Wandile M. Ngcaweni is an associate researcher in Political Economy at MISTRA. He holds an MA degree in Critical Diversity Studies from the University of the Witwatersrand.

ALUNCEDO ZIKHALI

Aluncedo Zikhali was an intern (junior researcher) at MISTRA. She is enrolled for a PhD in Public Administration at the University of KwaZulu-Natal. Her research interests include women and youth empowerment, as well as public service delivery.

NJABULO ZWANE

Njabulo Zwane is an associate researcher in Humanity at MISTRA. His research interests are in the histories of nation formation and African youth subjectivities, as well as state-building in South Africa.